

Paul & Betty Hiscock Biographical Information

Paul was saved at age eight and called into the ministry during his teen years. He studied at Bob Jones University and at Maranatha Baptist Bible College. They met there and were married in 1971. Paul has a bachelor's degree in Sacred Music and Bible from MBBC and a master's degree from Pensacola Christian College (1985) under the leadership of Dr. Frank Garlock.

Paul served as Music Director on the pastoral staff at Burge Terrace Baptist Church in Indianapolis for 30 years. Paul & Betty have since taken their years of ministry experience into traveling as an evangelistic team. They have four grown children.
